A Guide to Good Practice

Consistent with Sandwell Safeguarding Children Board (SSCB) policies and procedures

Safeguarding

The contents of this leaflet should be brought to the attention of each person who is employed or on placement within your setting. A copy should go to each parent and carer so they fully understand the settings duty of care to all children.

Child abuse can take place in families irrespective of class, culture, race, religion or income group. Abusers may be strangers, but they are more likely to be trusted people close to the child, including carers, other professionals, relatives, friends as well as parents.

It is because of this practitioners need to have a clear understanding of what to do if they think a child might be abused or neglected and what happens if a practitioner is suspected of abusing a child.

Before you report any suspected abuse, you should normally tell the parents that you are concerned and that you intend to report your concerns. However, you should not do this if you feel it would place the child, or yourself, at increased risk.

If you think that a child in your care might have been neglected or abused, you must report this to The Sandwell Access Criteria for Children's Support Services (ACCSS) Team. The ACCSS Team provides a single point of contact and gives professionals and members of the public an opportunity to discuss children and young people's support needs with specialist childcare professionals. These notes show you how to do this, and what will happen next.

Guidelines for practitioners

Concerned about child abuse?

What Do I Do?

Act now do not delay

Contact the Sandwell A.C.C.S.S Service and speak to the Duty Social Worker (see list)
Say you have a child protection concern
Discuss your concerns with the Duty Social Worker
The Duty Social Worker will advise you of any further action. You may be asked to follow up your concern in writing.
Keep accurate records, signed and dated.

The safety of the child is the major consideration

REMEMBER, no young person is 'immune' from abuse. If you have concerns that someone is being abused or neglected ensure that the circumstances are passed on to CYP&F Social Care Services. LET THE DUTY SOCIAL WORKER DECIDE whether further enquiries are justified. YOU NEED NOT GIVE NAMES STRAIGHT AWAY IF IT HELPS YOU MAKE THAT CALL.

NB You will need to contact the Sandwell ACCESS Service.

Make a quick note about what is concerning you, so you can be clear on the phone. Have the child's record card ready and remember to state that you want to report a child protection concern.

NB If you care for children who live outside Sandwell you will need to find out the relevant contact numbers for the area in which they live e.g. Birmingham or Dudley.

Sandwell Access Criteria for Children's Support Services (A.C.C.S.S)

Sandwell ACCESS Team

- Referrals & Assessment

PO BOX 16020

SMETHWICK

B67 9EZ

- Tel No: 0845 351 0131
- For out of office hours, please contact the Emergency Duty Team on 0121 569 2355
- Local Authority Designated Officer 0121 569 4770

The Duty Officer will ask you:

- ◆ Who you are
- ◆ Who the child is
- ◆ Why you are worried
- ◆ Details from the child's record card

If the Referral and Advice Officer thinks Social Care Services should investigate, he or she will ask you for anything else you know about the child and his/her family, such as when you expect a parent to collect the child.

If you feel the child needs to see a doctor – Tell the Duty Social Worker

If you feel frightened about anything – Tell the Duty Social Worker

There may be some things the Duty Social Worker wants you to do. Listen carefully, make a note and if you are not happy about this say so. After speaking to you the Duty Social Worker will speak to a manager and they will decide what to do. If they decide to make further enquiries, they must tell the Police. Social Care Services and the Police always work together. If Social Care Services decides they do not need to make further enquiries, do not hesitate to contact the Duty Social Worker if you have further worries about the care of any child.

IF THERE IS AN INVESTIGATION: A social worker will speak to the parents/carers. You might be invited to a strategy meeting a few days later. Sometimes (but not often) practitioners are asked to give evidence in court.

What happens if a staff member, student or volunteer is suspected of abusing a child.....

When Social Care Services or the Police suspect that a child has been neglected or abused, they may not know at first whose fault it is. Anyone who has been in contact with the child may be under suspicion, including you or other members of your family/friends. This can be very distressing. If this happens to you, it is important to remember that the purpose of Social Care Services is to protect children from harm. You should be as helpful as you can. You can be assured you will be treated in the same way as any member of the public.

While the enquiries are going on you may be suspended from the setting.

If the Social Care Services believe that you have neglected or abused children, you may be barred from working with them in the future.

If you know a member of staff is suspected of abusing a child, you must notify Ofsted, the local authority designated Officer (LADO) and your insurance company immediately. NB It is an offence not to inform Ofsted.

You should tell the parents/carers that: -

- ◆ If they suspect you of abusing a child they should contact the Sandwell, ACCESS service Duty Social Worker.
and
- ◆ If they have any concerns about the standards of care you provide, they should contact: -
